Re: United States of America v. MIMO International Imports and Exports, Inc., Case No. 1:18-cr-00059 (PKC).

Dear Judge Chen:

We represent the Confederation of North, Central American and Caribbean Association Football ("CONCACAF"). The victim of the defendant in the above-referenced matter, the Federación Costarricense de Fútbol ("FEDEFUT"), is a member association in CONCACAF. I am writing to you on behalf of FEDEFUT with respect to your March 16, 2018 order granting Restitution in the amount of $500,000 to FEDEFUT (the "Restitution Payment") (ECF No. 7). (Ex. 1). FEDEFUT respectfully requests that the order for the Restitution Payment be modified to allow the Payment to be sent to Sidley, counsel for CONCACAF, in the United States. The request is being made because FEDEFUT has concerns sending such a large check to it via regular mail in Costa Rica presents risks associated with logistics and security that it would prefer to avoid if possible. Initially, on March 30, 2018, FEDEFUT provided Electronic Fund Transfer ("EFT") information to allow the court to electronically process the Restitution Payment. On April 10, 2018, however, Mei Liao, a financial analyst at the District Court for the Eastern District of New York, informed me that the EFT could not be processed. As an alternative, FEDEFUT has sent us the attached letter asking us to submit it to the Court on its behalf, in which it requests that the Restitution Order be modified to allow the Restitution Payment to be sent to my firm as its agent for this purpose. (Ex. 2) The letter from FEDEFUT to the Court is attached hereto.

SO ORDERED
DATED: Brooklyn, NY

If that is acceptable to the Court, we respectfully request that the Restitution Payment for FEDEFUT be ordered to be sent to FEDEFUT, c/o John Kuster, Esq., Sidley Austin LLP, 787 Seventh Avenue, NY, NY 10019. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Respectfully Submitted,

/s John J. Kuster
